

All swimming pools that can contain water that is over 24 inches in depth require a Building Permit prior to installation. All swimming pools of this nature are considered permanent and must meet all code provisions regardless of whether they are inflatable or portable. Swimming Pools that can contain under 24 inches of water are exempt from all permit requirements. The guidelines can be found on our website, under “Forms and Documents”, under the “Building Inspector” tab.